Dr. Christopher Powell is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Sociology at the University of Manitoba. His work combines an empirical focus on genocide with a theoretical interest in the social structuration of violence. He is the author of Barbaric Civilization: A Critical Sociology of Genocide (McGill-Queen's University Press), as well as "What do genocides kill? A relational conception of genocide" in the Journal of Genocide Research (2007) and "Genocidal Moralities: A Critique" in New Directions in Genocide Research (Adam Jones, ed., Routledge, 2011).
