

MIGS

Montreal Institute for Genocide and Human Rights Studies

at Concordia University

PRESENTS

Professor DOV SHINAR

Dean and Head of Fair Media, Center for the Study of Conflict, War, and Peace Coverage at Netanya Academic College, Israel

ON

DIFFICULT MEMORIES REMEMBERING THE HOLOCAUST IN LITHUANIA

(Film viewing, discussion and Q&A session)

TUESDAY, 5 APRIL 2011

12:30 to 14:00

ROOM LB 1014 (Rudé Seminar Room)
1400 DE MAISONNEUVE BLVD. WEST

Dov Shinar, Ph.D., is Dean, Professor, and Head of FAIR MEDIA at the Center for the Study of Conflict, War, and Peace Coverage in the School of Communications, Netanya Academic College in Israel. He was born in Brazil, and has been living in Israel for several decades. Shinar holds a Ph.D. (Hebrew U), and M.A. (U of Pennsylvania) in Communications. He is Professor Emeritus from Ben Gurion University in Israel and Concordia University, and Founding Dean of The School of Media Studies at the College of Management in Tel Aviv. His areas of interest include international communications, media in war and peace; media education; and media and development.