

Libya Domestic Media, April 12 (covering March 29 – April 11 2010)

By Odile Noël, MIGS Reporter for Libya

(State-owned Libyan TV, Tripoli, in Arabic 1930 GMT 29 Mar 10)

- The Hamas Movement political bureau's leader, Khalid Mish'al, called Al-Qadhafi to congratulate him on the success of the Arab summit.

(State-owned Libyan TV, Tripoli, in Arabic 1930 GMT 2 Apr 10)

- Al-Qadhafi had a phone conversation with the president of Guinea-Bissau, Mala Bacai Sanha, who reassured him about the situation in his country following the incidents of the 28 March.

(State-owned Libyan TV, Tripoli, in Arabic 1930 GMT 3 Apr 10)

- Al-Qadhafi met with Serbian President Boris Tadic in Libya to discuss the development of stronger ties between the two countries namely in economic fields. They also discussed the situation in the Balkan countries and Tadic was reassuring on the subject.

(State-owned Libyan TV, Tripoli, in Arabic 1930 GMT 8 Apr 10)

- Al-Qadhafi received a personal envoy of Maj. Salou Djibo, Niger's military ruler, Interim President for the Supreme Council for the Restoration of Democracy. The envoy conveyed a message in which Djibo thanked the Libyan leader for his help in promoting stability in Niger and asking for more advice concerning actions to take in this transition period.

(State-owned Libyan TV, Tripoli, in Arabic 1230 GMT 11 Apr 10)

- James Michel, president of Seychelles, met with Al-Qadhafi in Sirte. They discussed issues regarding the African Union and the Horn of Africa region, namely problems of piracy and economic violations. Michel was said to agree with the Libyan leader on the signing of an international agreement regarding maritime law and the Somali economic area.